

Thesis Title Training Needs Assessment of Staff Regarding Teaching and Learning in the Faculty of Nursing,
Chiang Mai University

Author Miss Chalunda Punparnich

M.Ed. Educational Technology

Examining Committee :	Associate Prof. Prachak Sudaprasert	Chairman
	Assistant Prof. Siriporn Plianpadoong	Member
	Lecturer Piyapun Wong-Oudom	Member

Abstract

The purpose of this study was to find out training need assessment in teaching and learning of instructors in the Faculty of Nursing Chiang Mai University. The subjects were 118 instructors. Questionnaires were constructed as a gathering data. The data were treated using a percentage and mean.

It was found that : (1) The most usage basic knowledge of these instructors was the state of behavioral objectives, Educational technology development and motivation techniques were needed for training. (2) Lecture and case study method were the most needed while problem-solving were high needed for training. (3) The most popular media for teaching were overhead projectors and slides while computer assisted instruction productions were needed for training. (4) The instructors were not comprehended in educational measurement and evaluation. They also needed this topic for training especially for the new comers instructors in every year.