

Prakit Phuangraya 2006: Knowledge and Understanding in Watershed Management of Huai Kha Khaeng Wildlife Sanctuary Officials, Uthaitani Province. Master of Science (Forest Resource Administration), Major Field: Forest Resource Administration, Interdisciplinary Graduate Program. Thesis Advisor: Associate Professor Wicha Niyom, Ph.D. 93 pages. ISBN 974-16-2527-8

The study on knowledge and understanding in Watershed Management of Huai Kha Khaeng Wildlife Sanctuary Officials, Uthaitani Province aim to study the social and economic factors of the Huai Kha Khaeng Wildlife Sanctuary officials, the knowledge and understanding level for natural resources for watershed management of the officials in the Huai Tub Sa –Hlouw watershed. The 224 sample questionnaires would to teste the percentage, average, and Chi-square were used as statistical analysis.

The results revealed that the household leaders samples of official samples 69.2 percentages were male. The 57.2 percentages were graduated primary school education. More than 98.2 percentages of the officials were worked at National Park, Wildlife and Plant Conservation Department and worked under Forest Fire Control Unit. The knowledge base on watershed management area and natural resources conservation was high level with 80.4 percentages. Chi-square test founded that people participation was significantly for the watershed management knowledge with medium level about 57.7 percentages.

Student's signature

Thesis Advisor's signature

29 / May / 2006