

Pirat Pithumachotiwat 2007: GIS Database of Plants in Rama IX Botanical Garden. Master of Science (Agriculture), Major Field: Horticulture, Department of Horticulture. Thesis Advisor: Assistant Professor Uamporn Veesomai, M.A.
148 pages.

The database of plants in Rama IX Botanical Garden is developed by the Geographic Information System (GIS) for the Rama IX Botanic Garden Foundation. Administrators of botanic gardens and those who are interested in plant studies can search for plants, their locations and botanical aspects through the GIS database, The information including both geographical and descriptive data. The information displayed on screen can also be printed out.

Pi

Student's signature

U. Veesommai

Thesis Advisor's signature

29 / May / 2007