

C240771 : MAJOR ELEMENTARY EDUCATION
KEY WORD: PARENTS' PROVISION/LEARNING OF STUDENTS/ELEMENTARY

EDUCATION

SOMJAI KLAHARN : PARENTS' PROVISION FOR LEARNING OF PRATHOM SUKSA SIX STUDENTS IN ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS UNDER THE JURISDICTION OF THE BANGKOK METROPOLITAN ADMINISTRATION. THESIS ADVISOR : ASST.PROF. WANNEE SIRICHOTE, 186 PP. ISBN 974-582-483-6

The purpose of this research was to study the parents' provision in learning of Prathom Suksa six students in elementary schools under the jurisdiction of the Bangkok Metropolitan Administration. Samples were 480 Prathom Suksa six students in the second semester of the academic year 1991 and 120 students' parents. The total number of samples was 600. Research instruments were students' questionnaires, parents' questionnaires and a residential surveying form.

Findings

1. The parents' provision in students' learning was divided into 4 parts : Language's usage provision; academic guidance; good working habits; survey and discussion of thoughts and current issues. The findings indicated that parents' provision in learning was at the mid-level in each part, parents' provision about good working habits was at the high level and parents' provision in learning as perceived by students was at mid-level in every part.

2. From the item analysis, it was found that the items which the parents' performed from high to low level respectively were 95.79 percent of the parents forbade or warned students not to speak cursed words; 94.47 percent of the parents made the students clean the places, tool and keep them immediately in their places after finishing their work every time and 93.44 percent of the parents provide learning utensils as the students needed. The item which was the least performed was that 36.72 percent of the parents made the students record their expenditures and daily events.

3. Concerning students' satisfaction 92.60 percent of the students were satisfied with parents' preparation of utensils needed and 13.16 percent of students were not satisfied with parents who made them do their homework, revise lessons and finish assignments before doing other things.