

Baworn Taimuengpak 2006: Utilization Behavior, Information Exposure, and Opinions on Wireless Network of Kasetsart University Students. Master of Education (Educational Technology), Major Field: Educational Technology, Department of Educational Technology. Thesis Advisor: Mrs.Kobkul Sunphakitjumnong, Ph.D. 81 pages.
ISBN 974-16-2089-6

The purpose of this study was to study students behavior, perception, and opinions on Kasetsart University wireless network.

The experimental group was 370 people consisting of undergraduate students, master degree students and doctoral degree students in semester 2, academic year 2005. The instrument of this study was a questionnaire on students behavior, perception, and opinions on Kasetsart University wireless network. The data were analyzed using frequency and percentage.

The results showed the following 1) The students behavior for using Kasetsart wireless network was use during study at Kasetsart University and use for entertainment, 2) the students still lacked of information about services of Kasetsart University wireless network and did not have computer notebook for connecting, and 3) the students' opinions for Kasetsart wireless network were mostly in agreement with Kasetsart University wireless network's convenience and service support services.

_____/_____/_____
Student's signature Thesis Advisor's signature

