

Punyawee Kiatprajuk, First Lieutenant 2009: State Problems and Needs of Instructional Media Utilization for the Instructors of National Defence College, National Defence Study Institute. Master of Education (Educational Technology), Major Field: Educational Technology, Department of Educational Technology. Thesis Advisor: Assistant Professor Squadron Leader Sunchai Pattanasith, Ed.D. 101 pages.

The purpose of this research was to study the state of problems and needs of instructional media utilization National Defence College's instructors.

The population of this research were 50 National Defence College's instructors. Data were collected by questionnaires. The data were analyzed by percentage, mean and standard deviation.

The results revealed that : 1) State of instructors and teaching media are the document and picture instructional materials type using sheets at the highest level, graphic instructional materials type using whiteboards, pictures and statistical maps at a high level, audio visual instructional materials type using diskettes at the highest level, activities and plays instructional materials type using field trips at the highest level and audio visual equipments type using the computer sets at the highest level. 2) The most problem with the teaching media appeared that the audiovisual officers had many responsibilities and insufficient time to service all instructors; and 3) The need in using teaching media for instructors are the document and picture instructional materials type using at the middle level are sheets, journals, books, text books, pictures , graphic instructional materials type using statistical maps, whiteboards and maps at the highest level, audio visual instructional materials type using diskettes at the highest level, activities and plays instructional materials type using field trips at the highest level, audio visual equipments type using computer sets, video tapes and video cassette players, tape recorders and projectors at the highest level and service type using printing service, creating original academic documents and photocopying at a high level.

---

Student's signature

---

Thesis Advisor's signature

____ / ____ / ____