The study of the changing roles of village scouts' political ideology is aimed at understanding the evolving and changing of their political ideology.

The method of study consists of documentary research, interview of the president of the village scouts, and questionnaire.

The result of the research shows that the political ideology of the village scouts had slightly increased before October 6, 1976 with also some expression of social and economic ideologies with lesser regard than the political, but their political ideology was getting higher during the 6th of October 1976 event with no expression of social and economic aspects.
But during 1996 it played almost no role. However, it turned to be active in social aspect with continuous increasing.
