

The purposes of this research were to study about state and to compare problems on organizing exercise programs of government and semi-government in area of exercise programs management including personnel, budgeting, project procedure, facility and equipment. One hundred and seven questionnaires were distributed to the director of exercise programs of government and agencies 90 questionnaires which accounted for 84.1 percent were returned. Eight hundred and four questionnaires were sent out program management committee and participants and 712 questionnaires which accounted for 88.56 percent were returned. The obtained data were then analyzed in term of percentage, means, standard deviation. The differences among groups were determined by t - test.

The result were as follows:

1. Sixty-two out of 62 government has organized exercise programs. Most of government has less than 5 exercise specialist. Budgeting was mainly form membership fees. Organizing exercise programs was operated on the weekday which accounted for 58.

5 percent. Sport facilities were popular including table-tennis grounds, weight training rooms, and sepak-trakraw grounds. And the exercise center had lent some equipment basketballs, table-tennis rackets, 1-9 lockers for serviced participants which accounted for 48.8 percent.

2. Twenty-sixth out of 28 Semi government agencies were organized exercise programs. Most of these agents exercise specialist about 1-5 person which accounted for 76.9 percent. The money was received from annual budget. The government were organizing exercise programs during weekday which accounted for 69.2 percent. The centers had some facilities including sepak-trakraw courts, and aerobic-dance rooms and lent more than 15 lockers for serviced participants which accounted for 53.9 percent.

3. problems on organizing exercise programs of government agencies were at high level in the area of personnel project procedure budgeting and facilities.

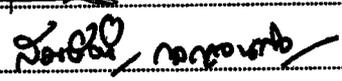

4. problems on organizing exercise programs of semi-government agencies were at high level in all areas.

5. In comparison of problems on organizing exercise programs between exercise program management committee and participants of government and semi-government, agencies were significant differences at the .05 level in comparison of organizing exercise programs between government and semi-government with in administration and participants groups, were no significant differences at the .05 level

ภาควิชา.....

ลายมือชื่อนิสิต.....

สาขาวิชา.....

ลายมือชื่ออาจารย์ที่ปรึกษา.....

ปีการศึกษา.....

ลายมือชื่ออาจารย์ที่ปรึกษาร่วม.....