Author : Miss Intira Hoontrakul
Adviser : Assoc. Prof. Prachaksha Saisang
Type of work : Thesis for (M.A. in Thai language) Naresuan University, 1999.

The Purposes of this research was to study Intellectual value found in Sathienloset & Nakhapratheep's Hitopathat, rhetorical version of 1916, distributed by Sai Song Suksit, 1998. It was to analyse Intellectual value particularly in terms of individual's thought, truth of the world and of life, and virtue of human beings and of animals.

Followings were the conclusion of the research. The individual's thought taught people to realize importance of Knowledge, and also taught people that wisdom had more value than a variety of properties. The truth of the world and of life taught people to realize worldly facts that people encountering in every day life. And virtue or merit taught people to determine correct and proper behavior. Every respect of the intellectual value can be applied for every day life without limit of time and season.
