AMPAI BOONSANG : EFFECTS OF PARAPHRASING PRACTICE ON SPEAKING AND WRITING ABILITIES IN THAI LANGUAGE OF MATHAYOM SUKSA THREE STUDENTS. THESIS ADVISOR : ASST. PROF. KAMONPORN BUNDITYANOND, Ph.D. 241 pp. ISBN 974-636-019-1.

The purposes of this research were to study effects of paraphrasing practice on speaking and writing abilities in Thai language of mathayom sukka three students. The samples were purposively selected from mathayom sukka three students of Thyhad School, Muang District, Smutsongkham. The subjects were divided into two groups, 28 and 30 students respectively. The first one was the experimental group taught by using paraphrasing practice and the second one was the controlled group taught by using teacher's handbooks. The instruments constructed by the researcher, consisted of 12 daily lesson plans, Thai speaking ability test and Thai writing ability test. Both groups were taught 12 periods by the researcher for 6 weeks. Thai speaking and writing ability tests were administered to the samples after the experiment. The results were analyzed by arithmetic mean, standard deviation and t-test

The results of this study were as follows:

1. Teaching by paraphrasing practice affected the ability in Thai speaking of mathayom sukka three students at higher level than teaching by teacher's handbooks at the .05 level of significance.
2. Teaching by paraphrasing practice affected the ability in Thai writing of mathayom sukka three students at higher level than teaching by teacher's handbooks at the .05 level of significance.
