KEY WORD: POLITICAL POWER

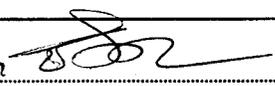

CHITPHOL KANCHANAKIT; POL.LT. : THE BUILDING AND MAINTAINING OF POLICE GENERAL PHAO SRIYANANDA'S POLITICAL POWER. THESIS ADVISOR : ASSO. PROF. WITHAYA SUCHARITHANARUGSE, Ph.D. 296 pp. ISBN 974-636-614-9

This study aims at finding out how Police General Phao Sriyananda builds up and maintains his power during the ten year period in power. The study reveals that Police General Phao uses three institutions which are parliament and political parties, the Police Department and economic bases to prop up his power and each of them reinforces each other with support from other sources. Police General Phao further strengthens these institutions. During the period of study, politics and administration very much overlap especially the case of the police. Thus, police is used for political purposes to the highest degree benefiting the name of "police state".
