

Title : AN ANALYSIS OF SCHOOL PLANTS AND FACILITIES AND ADMINISTRATIVE PROBLEMS OF SCHOOLS UNDER EDUCATION
OPPORTUNITY EXPANDING PROJECT, OFFICE OF PROVINCIAL
PRIMERY EDUCATION, PHITSANULOKE

Author : Mr.Somsak Sangthongkam

Adviser : Assoc. Prof. Dr.Nipon Kinawong

Type of Work : Thesis (M.Ed. in Industrial Education), Naresuan
University, 2000.

This reseaech study was to analyze the school plants and facilities and to examine administrative problems in 3 aspects; facility buildings and their utilization, the maintenance of facility buildings and evaluation of facility buildings utilization, according to school sizes.

The samples of this study consisted of 132 schools and their principals of the primary schools under education opportunity expanding project in Phitsanuloke province. The random sampling was employed, selecting 80% of the toral schools by different districts. The instrument of the research study was a check-list and 5-scale rating questionnaire. Statistics employed were percentage, arithmetic means, standard deviation and ANOVA.

The Finding of the research study were as follows:

1. Characteristics of school plants and facilities

- 1.1 insufficient shclters for school janitors, decayed children play-grounds were observed. However, school flag poles were mostly in good condition.

1.2 insufficients of physical education gymnasium, decayed plants nursery were also observed. However, buildings for teaching and learning were in good condition.

2. There was a very minor administrative problems in facility buildings and utilization, there were a minor administrative problems in maintenance of school buildings and facilities and evaluation of facility building utilization.

3. Comparison of administrative problems of school plants and facilities as expressed by principals of different sizes of schools showed no statistical differences.