

DETECTION OF GIBBON VIRUS BY ELECTRON MICROSCOPY

Wattana Wattanavijarn

ABSTRACT

BHK-21 and MA 104 cell line were examined by inverted, light and electron microscopes after inoculation with virus from ulcerated lips of the gibbons. Both cell lines were completely destroyed within 24 hours. Inclusion bodies in the cell nuclei, and typical herpesvirus were found in both cell lines.