

C243032 : MAJOR DEVELOPMENTAL PSYCHOLOGY

KEY WORD : ALTRUISTIC/COOPERATIVE GAMES

USA PUANGTHUM : EFFECTS OF COOPERATIVE GAMES ON ALTRUISTIC BEHAVIOR OF PRE-SCHOOL CHILDREN. THESIS ADVISOR : ASSO.PROF.PRAPAIPAN POOMVUTISAN,
M.Ed. 69 pp. ISBN 974-581-135-1

The purpose of this research was to study the effects of cooperative games on altruistic behavior of pre-school children.

It was found that the children who played cooperative games for 8 weeks showed more altruistic behavior than children who did not play. At 2 weeks after the experiment, the children who played cooperative games maintained altruistic behavior.