

CONTENTS

	PAGE
ABSTRACT	i
PREFACE	ii
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT	iii
CONTENTS	iv
CONTENTS OF FIGURES	vi
CHAPTER 1 INTRODUCTION	1
BACKGROUND	2
PROBLEM STATEMENT	4
PURPOSE OF THE RESEARCH	5
SCOPE OF THE RESEARCH	5
RESEARCH METHODOLOGY	6
LIMITATION OF THE RESEARCH	6
THE BENEFITS EXPECTED OF THE RESEARCH	7
CHAPTER 2 MALAYAN EMERGENCY	8
INTRODUCTION	8
THE CONFLICT OF CPM-DISRUPTION OF SETTLED	10
INSTITUTIONAL PATTERNS
VIOLENCE-WARLIKE	11
A STATE OF EMERGENCY	13
GUERRILLA OPERATIONS-SOCIAL FORCE	21
MILITARY INVOLVEMENT-SOCIAL FORCE AND WAR	23

CONTENTS (Cons.)

	PAGE
MILITARY CAMPAIGN	26
SUMMARY	33
CHAPTER 3 PSYCHOLOGICAL OPERATIONS	34
INTRODUCTION	34
PSYCHOLOGICAL OPERATIONS	35
PSYCHOLOGICAL OPERATIONS DURING THE MALAYAN EMERGENCY	38
SUMMARY	48
CHAPTER 4 ANALYSIS	50
INTRODUCTION	50
ANALYSIS-VARIABLES OF PSYCHOLOGICAL OPERATIONS	51
ANALYSIS-THE CAUSE OF THE CPM INSURGENCE	56
THE MILITARY AND PEOPLE’S WAR	59
ANALYSIS-MALAYAN SUCCESS	62
SUMMARY	64
CHAPTER 5 CONCLUSION	66
CONCLUSION	66
BIBLIOGRAPHY	72
BIOGRAPHY	76

CONTENTS OF FIGURES

FIGURE NO.	PAGE
1. British using helicopters to evacuate military It was only after twelve years of intensive jungle Operations to hunt the CPM in their jungle retreat did the CPM security threat finally declared ended in 1960	2
2. Malaya is bordered on the north by Thailand and to the south by state of Singapore	9
3. Counter-insurgency campaign began	10
4. The guerrilla war, which is also known as the Malayan War	14
5. CPM were jungle based	15
6. Sir Harrold Briggs	17
7. A core policy in defeating the CPM insurgency was the creation of model 'New Villages' such as this one being inspected by the High Commissioner Sir Henry Gurney (left) in Jelebu	19
8. Fld. Marshall Sir Gerald Templer Half-length, almost full face, standing with hands in suit pockets, with Lady Templer and two others. Sir Gerald was former Chief of the Imperial General Staff	20
9. Additional military forces	26
10. Army began to conduct its Operation	29
11. Ferret Forces were deployed in the jungle	31
12. Small-unit patrolling tactics	32
13. The struggle for the hearts and minds was another plank of government policy. Here, a Home Guard inspector reassures the local villagers days after they had been visited by terrorists.	36

CONTENTS OF FIGURES (Cons.)

FIGURE NO.	PAGE
14. General Sir Gerald Templer arrival in Malaya in 1951	55 transformed the strategic and political situation in Malaya. He enthusiastically started the resettling of half a million Chinese squatters to deprive the CPM terrorists of local support.
15. A terrorist is interrogated by an interpreter on behalf	60
of the British soldiers	