

Abstract

Title ASEAN Leadership Program: Strengthening ASEAN's Security within the ASEAN Nations

Field Social-Psychology

Name Mrs. Vunnaporn Devahastin Suthapreda

Course NDC Class 54

Due to a dynamic world and upcoming epoch of ASEAN nations to become a formal ASEAN Integration in 2015, conducting Leadership Program for Executive ASEAN Champions of Change is inevitable. For this, the government's roles shall perform as a catalyst to foster greater collaboration among their members as well as business sectors and citizens to move forward in a unified manner for all stakeholders. Besides, developing leadership competencies are required and prerequisite for current leaders so that to enable them to deal with the citizen demand which is dramatically increasing in each day.

In this study, a researcher has reviewed the totally of 6 programs -- 4 come from national perspectives whereas the rest of 3 programs comes from international perspectives -- over Leadership Course for Executive Champions of Change. Furthermore, an analytical bureaucratic approach under the backbone of ASEAN Integration 2015, a following-up report on ASEAN roadmap, and a tendency of Thailand ranking from numerous international organizations are included in the study. Finally, a researcher has applied a Grounded Approach for conducting this ASEAN Leadership Program. There are inclusively 5 teaching methods such as Active Learning and Co-operative Learning and Sharing Experiences with which are included 10 compulsory themes, 2 selective themes, and 4 assessment guidelines.