This research was designed to investigate the planning process at the district level of the elementary education office in Suphan Buri province. It was found that the prepare stage covered arrangement of the working group for planning, distribution of the planning requirements, preparation of the planning data and information. Scheduling the planning activities, and the arrangement of budget support for planning.

Plan formulation started with the situation studies, then followed by policy formation, objective and target setting. Project concepts were made and distributed to various personnel in each relevant division of the office to fill up the project detail; All projects, when completed, were forwarded to the secretary of the planning committee for reassessment before submitting to the District Elementary Education Board to get final approval.
