

Abstract

The thesis of this research is study in the protection of women in the situation of armed conflict, the purpose to study in essential of law to apply for protected women in humanitarian performance. This research will analyze in the provision of laws to protected women in the situation of armed conflict by the Geneva Convention (IV) relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, 12 August and other relevant laws such as, The Universal Declaration on Human Rights, The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights & The International Covenant on Economic Social and Cultural Rights and Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women, 18 December 1979. Furthermore, the mechanism to protected women both state level and organization level, the measure to prevent the violation and a violent penalty provision of law are material part to protected women. This study has unveiled that the law cover many acts and protected women in the situation of armed conflict. Both human rights law and humanitarian law can protected women but the problem to violate is intentionally perform by combatants or person who has duty. So to increase the measure to be in dread of somebody will be the perfect way to protected women in the situation of armed conflict.