

Abstract

The study on “Way of Life under principle of Sufficiency Economy of Community Life Planning Committee of Expand Community Bangkok”, the three main objectives of this study were : firstly, to study knowledge of Sufficiency Economy of Community Life Planning Committee, secondly, to survey level of Sufficiency Economy application of Community Life Planning Committee, and thirdly, to survey relations between knowledge and application of way of Life under principle of Sufficiency Economy of Community Life Planning Committee. The samples of this study consist of 200 members of Community Life Planning Committee. The collection data is done by questionnaires execution. Statistics used are percentage, arithmetic mean, standard deviation, and Chi-Square.

Study finds that majority of the sample are male, aged more than 50 years, Buddhism, finish Secondary School / Vocational education, married and Family Leader with monthly salary not exceed than 10,000 Baht. Most of the samples are employees and average income 18,487.04 Baht. Findings on Knowledge of Sufficiency Economy of Committee is at high level whereas applied with way of life, the committee applied in dimension of body & mentality especially way of life under endurance due to they understood that all problems can be solved, next in dimension of Society focused on scarify to participation for community development , next dimension of environment in the area of checked and fixed the electronic home appliances to be ready for use all time and dimension of economic in the area of bought the home equipments in the reasonable prices. As for the relation between Sufficiency Economy knowledge and Sufficiency Economy application findings Sufficiency Economy knowledge related to Sufficiency Economy application in the dimension of body and mental and dimension of society at the level significant 0.05

Recommendation from this study Government should enhanced Community Life Planning Committee in co-operative with other communities and utilizing the Sufficiency Economy community organization networking, enhancing the role model of Sufficiency Economy to apply with the way of life including participating action research.

