

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my advisor, Prof. Surachai Sirikrai, and to other instructors of the MIR program: Associate Prof. Chulacheeb Chinwanno, Associate Prof. Prapat Thepchatree, Assitant Prof. Kajit Jittasevi, Assistant Prof. Pisanu Suntharak, Assistant Prof. Kitti Prasirtsuk, and Dr. Decha Tangseefa, who have not only solicited knowledge and intuition to me, but have also been a moral support and a force that drives me forward to pursue my passion in International Relations. Also, I am in debt to my colleagues at the International Security Unit, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, who bore the brunt when I was on a leave to finish my dissertation. I would also like to thank Assistant Prof. Nopadol Chartprasert and Mr. Witchu Vejjajiva for their cunning advices and for their lives of example. Lastly, I would like to thank my family and my dear friends, especially Ms. Kamdao Boonyarataphan, for all of their encouragement and unconditional love, affection, and friendship.

Mr. Sorawut Norapoompipat
Thammasat University
Bangkok, Thailand
August 2008