

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This independent study could not have been completed without the support of many people. I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to my advisor, Asst. Prof. Vimolchaya, for her advice, guidance and comments throughout my research.

Many thanks also go to all the respondents for their willingness to answer the questionnaires for this study. Many heartfelt thanks again also go to my friend for their help in distributing the questionnaires and support during the hard times.

Above all, I would like to express my gratefulness thank to my parents and encouraged me so that I could get through the difficult moments. Thank you so much.
