

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This study could not have been successfully completed if I had not received sincere assistance and support from many people. I would like to take this opportunity to express my gratitude to all of them.

First of all, I wish to express my grateful appreciation to my research advisor, Associate Professor Kamolrat Jarusratsamee, for her advice and sincere interest in my work. Her suggestions and attentive assistance have significantly shaped its overall structure.

I would like to thank all teachers and staff of English language institutions for their help and giving permission to me in the distributing and collecting of questionnaires.

Special thanks go out to all the working people who gave me the useful answers and suggestions on the questionnaires.

Finally, I would like to thank my family, my boss, and my friends, either at the Language Institution of Thammasat University, or at my workplace, for their cheerful encouragement and inspiration to me throughout this study.
