

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Special thanks go to Mr. Nimit Kanjana-Uthaisiri who convinced me to further study in order to be a well-trained teacher; to Mrs. Panomporn Vajirakachorn, a MA TEFL #1 graduate, who not only introduced me to the TEFL program but also provided me the TEFL and TU-GET application form; to my lovely classmates: Miss Khacheenuj Chaovanapricha, Miss Arisara Ali, and Mr. Parameth Lordasa, as well as, to all my senior and junior colleagues at Thai Airways International Pub. Co. Ltd. who provided support in all aspects during my study; and to Capt. Veerachai Sripa who never hesitated to support the activities of the TEFL program and taught me by example of the systematic thinking and problem solving that are very fruitful in a teaching career.

I would like to express many thanks indeed to Thai English teachers of the Business English Program at Suan Dusit Rajabhat University who sacrificed their valuable time to be the subjects of this study. I am also very grateful to their kindness in leaving some room for me to discuss this study.

I deeply appreciate the assistance without hesitation of Ajarn Gerald W. Williams and his team of professors: Dr. Harald Krause, Ajarn David Common, Ajarn Margaret Jamieson, and Elisaus Pangiraj from Dhurakij Pundit University in making a valuable contribution to a reading aloud passage assessment.

Respectful thanks to my advisor, Ajarn Edward B. Geerson, who is also my role model teacher for his academic suggestions, verification, and great encouragement in order to make this study complete.

Last but not least, I would like to express deep and sincere thanks to my big family for an excellent upbringing in an educative environment that gradually cultivated a teacher's mind, and which has led me to this proud moment.

Thammasat University
Bangkok, Thailand

Apisara Sritulanon
April 2007