

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Without advice, support and guidance from countless individuals, I would have ended up committing suicide and this study would not have been completed.

First and foremost, I would like to express my gratitude to everyone in my supportive family, especially my mom, my dad and my sisters, for always being there for me in my ups and downs and letting me be me.

Furthermore, I am beholden to Assistant Professor Dr. Tipamas Chumworatayee, my knowledgeable advisor, for optimistically tolerating my ignorance, guiding me throughout this research study with valuable advice and suggestions, and telling me that everything will be just fine.

In addition, I am indebted to Ajarn Pantipa Rujiwanichkul at Benjamarachutit School for generously arranging the time and place for the data collection and to charismatic Phil Halson for kindly commenting on the Reading Comprehension Test.

I am grateful for two insane individuals who keep me sane: Promporn Srikomol, who has been commenting on my writings with itchy comments for years and does not hate me yet, and Monchai Dechapipatskul, who always has expert answers and practical advice. I also thank my second family at STAR for supporting me through thick and thin and for those one of a kind jokes that always make me laugh my head off. Moreover, I am thankful for my loveliest TEFL friends, Ajarn Atchara, Ajarn Tippawan, Ajarn Issaree, and Ajarn Pathummawadee, whose wisdom, senses of humor and kindness made my time in this program an enjoyable moment. In addition, I wish to thank my best non-human buddy, my laptop, for being continually well-functioned, reliable and resourceful and never going kaput.

Last but not least, I would like to express my appreciativeness to J.B.J., whose words have been inspiring me to stand my ground, keep the faith and, most importantly, find peace of mind and positive power in the most chaotic moments.
