

ABSTRACT

Title of Research Paper : The Participation in Prevention and Solution
the Narcotics of Tambon Administration
Organization Council Members : A Case Study of Muang Yasothon District , Yasothon Province.

Author : Pol.Lt. Cap. Thithiphithara Unwethwhanich

Degree : Master of Arts (Social Development)

Year : 2001

Purposes of the reseach on the participation in prevention and solution the narcotics of Tambon Administration Organization Council members : A case study of Muang Yasothon District , Yasothon Province were as the following :

1. To study level of the participation in prevention and solution the narcotics of Tambon Administration Organization Council members in Muang Yasothon District , Yasothon Province.
2. To study factors influenced to the participation in prevention and solution the narcotics of Tambon Administration Organization Council members in Muang Yasothon District , Yasothon Province.
3. To find out the suggestion for prevention and solution the narcotics of Tambon Administration Organization Council members in Muang Yasothon District , Yasothon Province.

Questionnaires were used as tool to collect the data from 156 members of Tambon Administration Organization Council members in Muang Yasothon District , Yasothon Province. Statistical method used analysis the data and test the hypothesis were percentage , average , standard deviation , t – test and F – test.

(4)

Findings of the research were :

1. Majority of samples were male 82.1 percent. They were between 36-45 years old (43.6 percent). They graduated secondary school (49.4 percent). They were married (85.3 percent). They had income more than 6,000 bath (50.0,percent). They lived in the villages less than 30 years (53.8 percent). They were in the position less than 1 year (38.5 percent). And they used to participate in training program less than 1 time (61.5 percent).
2. Level of knowledge about the narcotics was generally in moderate.
3. Level of participation in prevention and solution the narcotics was in moderate.
4. Factors effected to the participation in prevention and solution the narcotics of Tambon Administration Organization Council members were duration of living in the villages , number of time to participate in training and knowledge of narcotics . Factors did not effect to the participation in prevention and solution the narcotics of Tambon Administration Organization Council members were sex , age , education, income , marital status, and duration of being in the position.