

ABSTRACT

Title of Research Paper : Opinion of Forestry Police Official on Task Adjustment
Author : Pol.Maj. Apichart Pattrakul
Degree : Master of Arts ( Social Development )
Year : 2001

---

The objective of the are as follows.

1. to study the opinion of Forestry Police Official on Task Adjustment
2. to study factors that relate to opinion of Forestry Police Official on Task Adjustment

Samples randomly chosen in this study are 200 policemen in Forestry Police Division. There are in the position from sergeant – Police Constable to Police Major. The instrument of study is questionnaire including sex , age , education , status , salary , position , rank , period of working in Forestry Police Division. The knowledge, understanding about transformation of task and the opinion of Forestry Police Division to task.

The result of study :

1. Almost all of Police officials are male, almost half of them are older than 40 years old and graduated in senior high school, majority of them are married, a half get salary more than 5,000 Baht Most of position are commander roles , majority of them are ranked sergeant, and half of sample group are working with Forestry Police Division more than 10 years.
2. Knowledge and understanding about tranformation of task in Forestry Police Division.

It is found that knowledge and understanding about transformation of task in Forestry Police Division is at medium level.

3. The opinion of Forestry Police Officials on task

The opinion of Forestry Police Officials on task is in medium level. It is found that , responsibility aspect is in high level , but risk aspect , salary and benefits , and the progress in career are in medium level.

4. Opinion of Forestry Police Official on Task Adjustment

It is found that the opinion of Forestry Police Officials on Task Adjustment are not different from as before according to salary and benefits , work security and work environment.