

ABSTRACT

Title of Research Paper : The Participation of Tambon Organization Administration's Council Members in Educational Management : A Case Study of Sawangveravong Sub-district, Ubonratchatani
Province

Author : Mr. Apai Boonsam

Degree : Master of Arts (Social Development)

Year : 2001

---

Objectives of the study on the participation of Tambon organization administration's council members in educational management : a case study of Sawangveravong Sub-district were : 1) to study level of the participation of Tambon organization administration's council members in educational management and 2) to study the factors influenced to the participation of Tambon organization administration's council members in educational management. Areas of the study focused only Tambon organization administration in Sawangveravong Sub-district, Ubonratchatani Province. Data collected from people totally 102 persons. Questionnaires were used as tool of data collection. Statistical method used in analysis included percentage, average, standard deviation, t-test and F-test.

Results of the study were :

1. level of participation in generally and four aspects of educational management of Tambon organization administration's council's members was low. It found that an average of the participation in educational management of general management was the highest. The others aspects such as budget, academic and personnel management were lower respectively.

TE129182

(3)

2. factors did not influence to participation of educational management included sex, ages, education, income per month, knowledge of duties in educational management and experiences in educational training and seminar.

3. factors influenced to the participation of educational management included of living in the area and experience of being a school committee.