

| | |
|-----------------------|---|
| Research Title | The Development of learning materials for Intelligent development by Using Local Wisdom for Early childhood center of Northeastern Region |
| Researcher | Miss. Nisarath Issaramanorose Mr. Sutas Janbuala Mr. Phanuwat nimnuan Mr. Mana Aermbua |
| Organization | Suan Dusit Rajabhat University |
| Year | 2015 |

This research aimed to The Development of learning materials for Intelligent development by Using Local Wisdom for Early childhood center of Northeastern Region. The studied primary data using questionnaires enquiring representative teacher in the child development center from 394 center. The results showed that using in learning skills for pre-school children were mainly from natural sources, the selection of materials for most children were safe, providing the media most of The media used which were in the experience of learning the media truly application. However problems of using were home made those learning experience using local knowledge were not durability. From the design and the development of 3 set of local wisdom The first set were made from pottery, second set Invention of bamboo., and third set Invention of cloth Evaluation of media kit from the experts was found, The first media set was found right to promotion of Intelligent development of young children. Appropriate to promote thinking skills. Materials and manufacturing processes, Appropriate for the child, and security and the application of local knowledge. were good level. For the second and the third media set was found right to promotion of Intelligent development of young children. Appropriate to promote thinking skills. Materials and manufacturing processes, Appropriate for the child, and security and the application of local knowledge were very good level