

Thesis Title	Park Sculpture in Laemp Promthep
Name	Mr Jarern Vongprecharkun
Concentration	Sculpture
Department	Sculpture
Academic Year	1998

ABSTRACT

This content of a thesis is a study of the relationship between sculpture and its environmental and the assembling of concepts about ideas, forms and techniques sculpture's creation in an art thesis. According to the name of "Park sculpture in Laemp Promthep project" in which to creator's imagination, and past examine in to form, connection between form and space, knowledge of basic composition as line, plane, volume and space.

The resultant finish of this project with theory and workshop are part of training from expert teacher of art and document check by graduate school silpakorn university and believe that this thesis's project is standard creation. This research project could be undertaken to create a more interesting series of environment sculpture. it's to support and expand doundary environment sculpture to continue development in the future.