ABSTRACT

My Art thesis is created from the emotion that was touched by distorted informations and brutal picture in a newspaper such as crime, murder, rape and sexual brutality just only for sale. From this emotion I had created the painting that reflected my idea, attitude and feeling by the special technique which I discovered and developed until it proper to pass on my feeling suddenly and continuously all of these sources subject, form and technique become the unity of my painting. Moreover, my painting are full of my individual.
