

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This independent study could not have been completed without the help and support from some important people. First and foremost, I would like to convey my sincere thanks to my advisor, Dr. Pattama Sappapan. I could have never accomplished this without your guidelines and advice.

To all the instructors and administrative staff members at the Language Institute Thammasat University, who have put all their efforts into giving knowledge and assistance.

To my co-workers at Toyota Motor Thailand, thanks for the encouragement and great work environment. All of you have made my tough times seem easier. I would also like to thank my family and friends. Without your wholehearted support and devotion, I could never have finished this study.

I hope that this study will be beneficial for individuals or organizations considering TOEIC as a tool in assessing people's English language proficiency.
