

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This study was successfully completed with the major assistance of these following people.

Firstly, I would like to express my deepest gratitude and thanks to my advisor, Assistant Professor Dr. Pratin Pimsarn, for kind, beneficial counseling, and verifying material during working on this research paper.

Secondly, my true thanks go to Matayom five and six students at Amatyakul School who patiently and willingly participated in the experiment and the pilot test.

Lastly, I would like to also give a tremendous thanks and appreciation to my family, my friends at Amatyakul School and at the TEFL 9 program who always give me help and encouragement.
