

APPENDIX B

A youthful hero

Last week, Rahman's wife Leila had an accident. Rahman's youngest child, Yusof, was at home when it happened. He was playing with his new car. His father had given it to him for his third birthday the week before.

Suddenly the little boy heard his mother calling 'Help! Help'. He left his toy and ran to the kitchen. The poor woman had burned herself with some hot cooking oil. She was crying with pain and the pan was on fire.

Rahman had gone to his office. Both the other children were at school. The youngster was too small to help his mother and she was too frightened to speak sensibly to her son, but he ran to a neighbour's house and asked her to come and help his mother. Soon she put out the fire and took the victim to the clinic.

When her husband came home, Leila told him what had happened. Of course Rahman was very concerned about his wife, but was also very proud of his sensible son. 'When you are a man, you will be just like your father,' he said.
