Dear Sir / Madame:

As Ms.Samorn Suthipiyapathra, the master's degree student in English for Careers, Language Institute, Thammasat University, has been conducting the thesis project entitled "Intercultural communication of Americans, Japanese, and Thais, Who are Working in the International Organizations in Thailand," on behalf of Language Institute, Thammasat University, we would like to ask for your kind assistance to complete the questionnaire enclosed.

In addition to an academic development, the findings of the research will help Americans, Japanese and Thais who are working with the international organizations in Thailand to explore and evaluate the effectiveness of their intercultural communication. Besides, the findings of this research will expand knowledge in understanding intercultural communication of people who are working with people from various cultures.

Enclosed is the summary of thesis project and the questionnaire. Please kindly be assured that all information provided by the respondents would be used only for academic purposes and no individual name will be revealed in the thesis without permission. If any further information is needed, please directly contact the researcher, Ms. Samorn Suthipiyapathra at 081-939-9129.

Your kind consideration in this regard would be much appreciated.

Sincerely,

(Assoc. Prof. Pratin Pimsarn, Ph.D.)
Director of Language Institute
