

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to thank my advisor Assistant Professor Vimolchaya Yanasugondha for her guidance. My advisor provided me with kind advice throughout the process of this research despite my slow progress.

I also need to thank Ms. Siriwon Ritruamsup for her help while I conducted this study and during all the time I spent at the Language Institute. For I am poorly organized, she always had to tell me what I had to do to complete my English for Career program.

Finally, I would like to thank my classmates who helped me distribute the questionnaires used in this study. It was almost impossible for me alone to distribute all the questionnaires.
