

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to my advisor for her great advice in conducting my research; without her help, this study would not have been possible.

Moreover, I would like to extend my gratitude to my colleagues at Precious Shipping Public Company Limited whose valuable suggestions and constructive comments contributed to this research.

Finally, I am greatly indebted to my parents and my classmates who continually encouraged me to expand my horizons, enhance my knowledge and provided me with their support, both in body and soul.
