

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to use this occasion to express my sincerest gratitude to Assoc. Prof. Dr. Sucharat Rimkeeratikul, my advisor, who helped me in various ways in preparing this research paper. Without her generous suggestions and comments, I would not have been able to complete it.

I would like to thank all Language Institute's officers at Thammasat University who kindly gave me a lot of advice and information.

I would like to express my deepest appreciation to Mr. Arthit Suebsiriviriyakul who assisted in preparing and gathering the questionnaires at 10 government secondary schools in Bangkok.

Needless to say, nothing is completely perfect. Any mistake in the research paper is solely my own responsibility.
