

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My heartfelt gratitude goes to my advisor, Associate Professor Dr. Pipop Udorn, who is responsible for the successful completion of my dissertation. His untiring effort, commitment, encouragement, guidance and support helped me greatly in the understanding and writing of this dissertation. Without his kindness and academic capabilities, this dissertation would not have been possible.

I am very grateful to my honorable committee members, Professor Dr. Robert T. Green, Associate Professor Dr. Pradit Wanarat, Associate Professor Dr. Boonchai Hongcharu, and Assistant Professor Dr. Thanawan Sangsuwan, who gave invaluable recommendations and constructive comments for the improvement of this dissertation.

I am greatly appreciative of the secretariat and director (Associate Professor Dr. Somkiat Eiamkanchanalai), the manager (Ms. Kanokporn Banreangsri), and the administrators of the Joint Doctoral Program in Business Administration (JDBA) for all great help and support.

My sincere thanks are given to my classmate, Mr. Apichart Kanarattanavong and Mr. Danupol Hoonsopon, who helped me in many areas. We usually share knowledge and consult each other since the beginning of the program. Their motivation and support in times of trouble are very valuable.

Finally, my deeply gratitude goes to my lovely family, my father and mother, my grandmother, my sisters, my wife, and my children for all their love, care, inspiration, and supports in everything. I love you all.
