

Natthacha Worphet 2014: An Analytical of Concept of Freedom and Responsibility of Jean – Paul Sartre’s Philosophy with Freedom and Responsibility of Press. Master of Arts (Philosophy and Religion), Major Field: Philosophy and Religion, Department of Philosophy and Religion.
Thesis Advisor: Assistant Professor Theerat Saengkaew, Ph.D. 117 pages.

The objectives of this research were: 1. to study the concept of freedom and responsibility of Jean – Paul Sartre’s Philosophy 2. to study the concept of freedom and responsibility of press. 3. to analyze relationship between the concept of freedom and responsibility of Jean – Paul Sartre’s Philosophy with freedom and responsibility of press.

The result indicated as follows; The concept of freedom and responsibility of Colbert – Paul Sartre is an abstract concept. Refers to the freedom of thought which used to decide own free will and, always accompanied by the responsibility. The freedom of the press is the right of freedom to information to public without government’s control which present couple to responsibility. The responsibility of the press, there are two types. Legal responsibility and responsibility as press’s code of conduct. But Sartre’s ethics. Ethics is ethic which bring freedom as basis to individual decision. The ethics of the press was set up by media organizations. Thus, Both of freedom’s character is different freedom that come with the different origins. Finally, there is no concept have fully freedom. Have to be always responsibly and ethical to control liberty. Only the responsibility of the two viewpoints are different.

---

Student’s signature

---

Thesis Advisor’s signature