

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I couldn't complete this project without the help of my advisors, Assoc. Prof. Tiranee Achalakul, Ph.D. and Asst. Prof. Boonserm Kaewkamnerdpong, Ph.D. I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my advisors, who always spend their time and efforts supporting me. I am thankful for all advices they gave me during this long working period. For all committee members, I would like to thank them for their time as well as excellent suggestions. I am grateful to all officers who have always offered me their willing helps. Moreover, this study is financially supported by National Research Council of Thailand (NRCT). I am grateful for their support to conduct this study.
