

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The dissertation titled “An Innovative Model for Cultural Tourism Management: Local Islamic Food in the Andaman Sea Region for Supporting the International Tourists” would not be accomplished without helps, advices, suggestions, opinions, and moral supports from many people, especially from various agencies that cordially provided data for the study and made this study completed. I would like to express my great appreciation to Assistant Professor Dr. Thirachaya Maneenetr, my research advisor for her useful guidance and enthusiastic encouragement. I owe gratefully thank to Associate Professor Dr. Phitak Siriwong and Dr. Donruetai Kovathanakul, co - advisors for their mental support and fruitful recommendations.

My grateful thanks are also extended to the National Research Council of Thailand (NRCT) that gives me a chance to do the research under the project of ‘Research Scholarship for Graduate Studies of the National Research Council 2015’

In addition, I would like to pass my sincere gratitude to the members of the supervisory committee: Professor Dr. William Ryan Chapman and Dr. Paweena Kongchan. Finally, I wish to thank my father, my mother for their support and encouragement throughout my study.

Nopparat Boonpienpon