

A STUDY ON OPINIONS OF TEACHERS' COUNCIL MEMBERS TOWARDS THE ROLES OF PATHUM THANI TEACHERS' COUNCIL

AN ABSTRACT

BY

PRADIST KEOMANEE

Presented in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the master of Education degree in Education Administration at Srinakharinwirot University

December 1993

The purposes of this research were 1) to study the opinions of Teachers' Council members toward the roles of Pathum Thani Teachers' Council concerning professional standard, academic development, teachers' right preservation, social - welfair and teachers services 2) to compare the opinions of Teachers' Council members toward the roles of Pathum Thani Teachers' Council classified by public schools and private schools members and years of membership.

The samples of this study composed of 291 members from public schools and 55 members from private schools. Research instrument was 40 items of rating scale questionnaire constructed by the researcher used to collect the data. Mean, Standard deviation and t-test were used to analysis the data.

The results were as follows :

1. The roles of Pathum Thani Teachers' Council concerning professional standard, academic development and teachers services were at the medium level and teachers' right preservation and social-wlfair were at the lower level.

2. The opinions of the Teachers' Council members in public schools and in private schools were no statistically significant different.

The roles concerning professional standard and academic development were statistically significant different at 0.05, but the others were no statistically significant different .

3. The opinions of Pathum Thani Teachers' Council of the Teachers' Council members with different years of membership were no statistically significant different.

The roles of academic development was statistically significant different at 0.05, but the others were no statistically significant different.