

Independent Study Title Development of Management Information System for Budget of the Planing and Development Bureau
Rajabhat Institute Lampang

Author Mr. Bundit Busaba

M.S. Information Technology and Management

Examining Committee

Lecturer Dr. Ekkarat Boonchieng	Chairman
Lecturer Preeyanuj Wongprapas	Member
Lecturer Dr. Samerkae Somhom	Member

ABSTRACT

The purpose of this independent study “Development of Management Information System for Budget of the Planing and Development Bureau Rajabhat Institute Lampang” is to develop Management Information System for Budget of the Planing and Development Bureau Rajabhat Institute Lampang.

Research methodology consisted of learning original system, collecting of data, analyzing system and designing system and finally integrating into a well developed and designed application program.

The Development of Management Information System for Budget of the Planing and Development Bureau Rajabhat Institute is based on Windows 98 Operating System. Visual Basic 6.0 is used for development tool. Oracle 8I program is a tool for database management.

The researcher of this independent study has found that development of Management Information System for Budget of the Planing and Development Bureau Rajabhat Institute Lampang is easy to use, convenient and fast the search result can also be produced accurately as required by user. Furthermore the researcher also made some suggestion for develop this program into a better and useful program in the near further.