

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all, I wish to sincerely express my gratitude to my advisor, Associate Professor Dr. Arunporn Itharat, Department of Applied Thai Traditional Medicine, Faculty of Medicine, Thammasat University, for her valuable instruction, intellectual guidance, excellent suggestions and kindness, together with constant encouragement throughout the course which are more than I can describe here.

I would like to give my gratitude to my thesis committee, Professor Dr. Somboon Kietinun, Dr. Pintusorn Hansakul, and Associate Professor Dr. Sukanya Jesadanont for their recommendation and kind suggestions.

My thanks also go to the officers in the Graduate School for making this thesis possible. My appreciations also go to the staffs in Herbal Medicine and Food research unit, Faculty of Medicine, Thammasat University for their warm regards, teaching, training, suggestion, friendship and technical help. Many thanks to Ms. Rujiluk Rattarom, Mrs. Rungnapa Hiatt, Ms. Srisopa Ruangnoo, Ms. Pakakrong Thongdeeying, Ms. Sunita Makchuchit and Mr. Intouch Sakpakdeejaroen for discussion, suggestion and some data in this work.

Finally I would like to thank National Research Council of Thailand (NRCT) for financial supporting.
