

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to express my deepest gratitude to my advisor, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Sirintornthep Towprayoon. I could not accomplish this doctoral dissertation without your generous support, enlightening ideas, great discussions, and encouragements. Thank you for your hard attempt to teach, guide, and constantly inspire me to improve myself and my work since my first day as a Ph.D student until the point of full dissertation completion. I would also like to thank my committees Assoc. Prof. Dr. Pawinee Chairasert and Dr. Saroch Boonyakitsombut. Thank you for continually encouraging me when I was overwhelmed, and providing me with positive feedback as well as constructive criticism.

I express special thanks to Prof. Dr. Dong-Hoon Lee who is serving as external examiner for useful suggestions and valuable comments.

My thanks also go to my friends who have cheered me up through words of encouragement. Thank you for always being alongside me every step in many of the depressing days

I want to thank sincerely my mother for her continued love, understanding and endless support through the good times and the hard times. Throughout this period you have helped me keep things in perspective.
