

Research Title : The relationship between a performance and a disclosure of social and environmental information of Thai listed companies in the Stock Exchange of Thailand in property and construction section

Name of Researcher : Miss Rong-ek Varnapru

Name of Institution : Faculty of Accounting, Sripatum University

Year of Publication : B.E. 2558

ABSTRACT

A study of the relationship between a performance and a disclosure of social and environmental information of Thai listed companies in property and construction section was conducted with the objective 1) to study a disclosure of social and environmental information of Thai listed companies in property and construction section 2) to study a relationship between a performance and a disclosure of social and environmental information of Thai listed companies in property and construction section. The population was 62 Thai listed companies in property and construction section, a data on December 31, 2013. The data was collected from Financial Statements, 56-1 Report and Annual report for 3 years (between year 2011- 2013). The descriptive and inferential statistics used in this research comprised frequency, percentage, standard deviation and multiple regression analysis

A study found 1) a relationship between a return on total asset, company size and a disclosure of environment information 2) a relationship between a return on total asset, company size and a disclosure of social and environment information.

Keywords : a disclosure of social information, a disclosure of environmental information, return on total asset, market value added, size