

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere appreciation to Assoc. Prof. Dr. Chaiyuth Punyasavatsut, my advisor and the chairman of my thesis committee, for tireless encouragement, guidance and support throughout the course of research on my thesis.

I am deeply indebted to Assoc. Prof. Dr. Vimut Vanitcharearnthum, my thesis committee, for his fruitful comments and efficient recommendation. Furthermore, I would like to show my gratitude to the other thesis committee, Dr. Supruet Thavornyutikarn who relates many interesting ideas in Buddhism to the mainstream economic concept.

In addition, I would like to express my appreciation to Prof. Dr. Apichai Puntasen, who has devoted his time to give invaluable advice enhancing the quality of my thesis.

I would like to express my utmost respect to Ajarn Sujin Boriharnwanaket, the chairman of Dhamma Study and Propagation Foundation who has casted the light of right understanding on my stupidity.

I owe my deepest gratitude to my parents. I would not be here if you both forgot your dedication, true love, and never ending support.

I am grateful to P'Mee for her good advice and encouragement. Moreover, I would like to thank Big, Card, Fai, Heng, Jes, Kaew, Mui, P'Nam, P'Nooknick, P'Tong, Pichitra, Pum, Wahn, Yok, and other friends.

Last but not least, a thank you to my Penguin. At hello, all my hopelessness disappeared. Throughout several years of being exhausted from my thesis, I still have you.

Any deficiencies in this study are my sole responsibility.

Thammasat University
Bangkok, Thailand

Peerapat Ketmanee
May 2010