

Thesis Title	The Satisfaction of EnterPrise Administrators Towards Characteristics of Industrial Technicians Graduates Chonburi Institute Technology
Student	Mr. Kriengsak Boonya
Student ID.	39064121
Degree	Master of Industrial Education
Programme	Vocational Administration
Year	1999
Thesis Advisor	Asisstant Professor Dr.Naovaratana Vilaichone
Thesis Co-advisor	Associate Professor Dr.Chote Petchurn

ABSTRACT

The objectives of this research were: (1) to examine satisfactions of the enterprise administrators on characteristics of certificate graduates in industrial programme in Technology Chonburi and (2) to compare the satisfaction among the enterprise administrators. Sample were 164 persons from the government offices, hotels and industrial business enterprises. Questionnaires with reliability of 0.95 were employed for data collection. The data were analysed by perecentage, mean, standard deviation, F-test, and scheffe's - test.

The rearch findings were :

1. The administrators of three types of enterprises hotels, govenmennt offices and industrial business enterprises were satisfied with the characteristics of certificate graduates in industrial programme in Technology Chonburi at the most level, which were classified in order from the most to the least in each aspects as following : (1) moral and items and ethies, there were items of keeping discipline working cooperation and taking consideration of other workers; (2) personal characcteristies were ability to control temper while working, working with other, and (3) knowledge and skills were ability to finish working on schedue, on-time, and instrument keeping.

2. Administrators of three types of Enterprises were not significant satisfication difference on Characteristics of Certificates graduates in industrial programme in Technology Chonburi.