

Name : Mr. Choomphol Yangcharoenyeunyon
Thesis Title : A Study on Cooperation for Student Training between Educational Institutes and Enterprise Training for Optical Technology Program at Certificate Level.
Major Field : Vocational and Technical Education Management
Thesis Advisors : Dr. Suporn Panrat-isra, Mr. Somyot Jedjaroenruk
Academic Year : 1994

Abstract

The questionnaire is aimed to find the appropriate cooperation strategies between education institutes and training places for optician trainees at certificate level from Technical Colleges under the supervision for Vocational Department. The questionnaires were distributed to 160 executives of training place, 8 executive of Optician education institutes and instruction supervisors. The data were the subjected to statistical analysis using percentage, arithmetic means and standard deviation.

The most necessary topic of psychomotor domain were be lens selection Dispensing, and Refraction. The amount of them were be 33 topic. The appropriate cooperation strategies should be done project by committe to be composed staff from education institute and profession associate. The research also shown that it provide successful training various factors should be considered personal ability, scope of routine. The member will be established.

Committee Chairperson