

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis would not have been achieved without the valuable comments, helpful suggestions, and encouragement from many persons whom I am greatly indebted. I would like to acknowledge my gratitude to all of them.

My sincere appreciation is to Prof. Dr. Praipol Koomsup, my thesis advisor and the chairman of the thesis committee. This thesis would not have even started without his insightful suggestion and beneficial discussed time sacrificed for me.

I would like to extend my appreciation to the thesis committees, Asst. Prof. Dr. Nitinant Wisaweesuan for inspiration of the thesis, and Assoc. Prof. Dr. Tatre Jantarakolica for valuable advice on econometrics techniques. All of their helpful comments and corrections push my thesis improving.

I also wish to gratefully acknowledge to Kasikornbank for the two-year scholarship.

Special thanks to Ms. Supattra, Ms. Nonglak, and Ms. Jurairat, from National Statistical Office for relieving my extremely hard access to the useful data.

My biggest thanks in this regard go to all senior students for every recommendations and sharing discussions and emotions during hard time in studying.

Millions thanks to my friends whom pass the difficult time in study together. In addition, so much thanks to Supot for supporting everything I need throughout my master degree.

Finally, I would like to thank my beloved family, my parents and my elder sisters, I wish to thank you with deepest of my heart for being a part of my life and this achievement.

Any mistakes and deficiencies in this thesis are definitely my own responsibility.

Thammasat University
Bangkok, Thailand

Panda Ketraungroch
May 2008